● What to do?

- Collect all objects or at least one object of each letter and put them in a bag without the child's knowledge.
- Place a soft cloth hair band on the child's eyes to prevent him from seeing the objects.
- Hand him/her the bag and ask to touch the objects with his/her hands and identify them.
- Now place all the objects out.
- Place cards with the letters written on them, in front of the child.
- The letter sounds should be the beginning sounds of the objects. Write only one letter per card. Old visiting cards may be used for this purpose.
- Take one object yourself and place it under the appropriate card.
- For example: Place the flower below the card which has an 'f' written on it.
- The child will take the cue and continue with the activity.
