

Fun time at home

HOME LEARNING Activities

- Hands On Activities
- Rhymes
- And More

Parent toddler program – A program specially designed to engage parents and toddlers with lots of fun filled activities through recorded videos and home learning activities.

Note to Parents:

- Organize every activity in neat pouches & trays.
- Ensure easy accessibility for the child to encourage independent learning.
- Allow the child to choose. These activities can be repeated too. Encourage routines and procedures around pack-up and clean-up.

If I cannot learn the way you teach me, teach me the way I can learn.

Dear parents,

To encourage creativity and imaginative play along with skill-based learning, here are some hands on activity suggestions for the week. Encourage the child to do a minimum of 2 per day.

Picture Books

How to:

- Reading to your toddler every night is a great way to introduce him to different words. Read him a simple book with pictures and ask him questions related to the story. You can also try pointing at images in the book and ask him to identify them. This can help improve his vocabulary and teach him to give accurate responses to the questions asked.

Fun with Spaghetti

Materials Required-

- A Tray with boiled Spaghetti
- Spinach paste
- Beetroot paste
- Tongs

How to-

- Divide the spaghetti in 2 bowls/trays
- Then let the children add the vegetable paste in each bowl.
- Allow the children to see the colour and explore the spaghetti with their hands.
- Then give them tongs to pick the spaghetti

Foil Painting

Materials Required-

- A4 size white sheet
- Aluminium Foil
- Paints

How to-

- Allow the children to use their fingers and paint on the aluminium foil.
- Then you can give them a thick brush and ask them to paint.

Toys and Puppets

Materials Required-

- Finger/Glove Puppets

How to-

- Give your toddler toys or puppets and encourage him to have conversations with them. Kids are creative and imaginative – once you show them the way, they will take over. You can also use puppets to have simple conversations with your child. Put on a puppet show to make playtime more enjoyable.

Passing through the Tunnel

Materials Required-

- A tunnel or Large Carton Box

How to –

- Allow the children to pass through the tunnel

In my house

In my house there's a room
And in that room there's a bed
And on that bed there's a tiny teddy bear
With a very bad cold on his head

AAACCCHUUUU....

Tiny tim

I have a little turtle his name is Tiny tim(2)
I put him in the bath tub
To see if he could swim
He drank up all the water and ate a bar of soap(2)
And now he has a bubble, a bubble in his throat
Bubble bubble bubble(3)
Bubble bubble POP..

RHYMES FOR THE WEEK

2 Red apples

2 red apples hanging on the tree
2 red apples smiling down at me
I shook the tree as hard as I could Down came the apples..
Ummm... they were good

A Guide To Developing A Child's Emotional Intelligence

Why is it that when one baby cries another will also cry, and when someone can't stop laughing you find yourself laughing as well even though you have no idea why; this is because emotions are contagious. Emotional contagion is where we feel a reflection of someone else's emotions by looking at their expressions and actions. How someone is feeling can be caught, in fact, emotions are more contagious than flu!

It is very easy to think our children will not realize when we are upset or unhappy but actually they are likely to start feeling the same way without knowing why. A good example is when they are being dropped off at school and they start feeling anxious because we are feeling anxious about leaving them.

Developing emotional intelligence in children

So what do parents need to keep in mind about raising an emotionally intelligent child? Here are four parenting tips for childcare that will help develop emotional intelligence in children:

- Observe and label feelings
- Talk about emotions in others
- Validate your child's emotions
- Encourage problem solving

Children have to manage strong emotions on a daily basis and we as parents can teach and coach them in important skills in self-awareness and self-regulation that will build their EQ and emotional success in life.
