Dear Professor Tiwary,

We are pleased to confirm that Council has accepted your application for membership and you are now registered as a Fellow of the Institute. As a Fellow you may use the letters FIMA after your name.

It is important that we remain up to date with your current contact details so please take a moment to ensure that the address above is correct and contact the membership team if you would like to make any changes. We also communicate with our members regularly by email; according to our records your current email address is tiwarykalishankar@yahoo.com. Please contact the membership team if your email address has not been recorded correctly.

We hope that you will take full advantage of the IMA services to members. Our aim is to meet the professional needs of our members and your participation and support is greatly appreciated.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me or one of my colleagues in the membership department by emailing membership@ima.org.uk.

Yours sincerely,

Caroline Irwin
