LL.B integrated course on temporary basis from the year 2017-18 to 2018-19 with intake of one section of 60 students.

Sir,

The Standing Committee of the Legal Education Committee of the Bar Council of India at its meeting held on 9th April, 2017 considered the inspection report of Faculty of Law, Adamas University, 24 Parganas (North), Kolkata, West Bengal. After consideration, Committee made the following recommendations :-

The Standing Committee considered the inspection report of Faculty of Law, Adamas University, 24 Parganas (North), Kolkata, West Bengal. After consideration, the Committee is of the view that extension of approval affiliation be granted to run the existing courses i.e five year BA LL.B (Hons) and five year BBA LL.B (Hons) with intake of one section of 60 students in each course for a period of three years from 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20 and also granted fresh recognition and approval for starting five year B.Sc. LL.B integrated course on temporary basis from the year 2017-18 to 2018-19 with intake of one section of 60 students.

However, it is found for running three courses faculty of law is short, they have to appoint more faculty for law teachers in consonance with Statutory Rule for the three courses.

The appointment should be made within three months after constituting proper selection committee and with intimation to the Bar Council of India within same period.

The University/College is directed to also fulfill the following conditions failure of which may lead to subsequent necessary and proper action being taken in this regard.

1. The college management is directed to establish the Legal Aid Centre as per Clause-11, Schedule-III of Rule-11 of the Part-IV of the Legal Education Rules – 2008.
2. College should ensure the payment of salary to teachers as per Rules 22 schedule III, Part IV of BCI Rules.
3. The institution is directed to upgrade the library as mentioned below :-

“Today with the increasing cost of journals, books, wi-fi, e-library and online facilities including I.T. facilities, the minimum investment by each university should be Rs. 10 lakhs for each year. However any university/deemed university in rural area, it should be Rs. 5 Lakh and for all other affiliated colleges in the urban area it should be Rs. 2 lakhs and in rural area Rs. 1 lakh.”
4. The institution is also directed to upgrade the library by subscribing 10 sets of Indian Bar Review, selected judgments and professional Ethics published by Bar Council of India Trust.
5. Teacher Student ratio shall be as per Schedule-III, Rule-11, Clause-17, Part-IV of Bar Council of India Rules.
6. College is directed to inform the timings of the classes.

Further, the college must specify the timing of the college which has not been given. College should also maintain the timing which has to be minimum 5 ½ hours with half an hour break. College to file an affidavit to the Bar Council of India within six weeks mentioning the timing of the classes. The relevant rules are quoted hereunder :-

Rule (xxiii), Chapter I

“(xxiii) “Regular Course of Study” means and includes a course which runs for at least five hours a day continuously with an additional half an hour recess every day and running not less than thirty hours of working schedule per week.”

Rule 5 of Schedule III

“Classes may be conducted between 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. in an Centre of Legal Education, which is not fully residential. However the Library may remain open till 10 p.m.”

The library should be furnished as per Clause 15 of Schedule III of Legal Education Rules 2008 is given below :-

Minimum Library requirement: To start with, a Law Library shall have a set of AIR manual, Combo offer of CD of AIR Pvt. Ltd. (containing electronic version of AIR Supreme Court and

For running integrated program, text books of such other subjects are also to be kept in the similar minimum ratio.

Further, the institution should follow the attendance rule and file reply that they are following the aforesaid rule. The next inspection team must also see whether the said rule is being followed by the university or not. The relevant Rule 12 is given below :-

“12. End Semester Test: No student of any of the degree program shall be allowed to take the end semester test in a subject if the student concerned has not attended minimum of 70% of the classes held in the subject concerned as also the moot court room exercises, tutorials and practical training conducted in the subject taken together.

Provided that if a student for any exceptional reasons fail to attend 70% of the classes held in any subject, the Dean of the University or the Principal of the Centre of Legal Education , as the case may be, may allow the student to take the test if the student concerned attended at least 65% of the classes held in the subject concerned and attended 70% of classes in all the subjects taken together. The similar power shall rest with the Vice Chancellor or Director of a National Law University, or his authorized representative in the absence of the Dean of Law.

Provided further that a list of such students allowed to take the test with reasons recorded be forwarded to the Bar Council of India.”

College should also admit students as per the below mentioned Rule:

 7. Minimum marks in qualifying examination for admission: Bar Council of India may from time to time, stipulate the minimum percentage of marks not below 45% of the total marks in case of general category applicants, 42% for OBC category and 40% of the total marks in case of SC and ST applicants, to be obtained for the qualifying examination, such as +2 Examination in case of Integrated Five Years' course or Degree course in any discipline for Three years' LL.B. course, for the purpose of applying for and getting admitted into a Law Degree Program of any recognized University in either of the streams.

Provided that such a minimum qualifying marks shall not automatically entitle a person to get admission into an institution but only shall entitle the person concerned to fulfill other institutional criteria notified by the institution concerned or by the government concerned from time to time to apply for admission.

Institution should submit affidavit the compliance of the above conditions within six weeks.

University's authorities are also required to apply before the Bar Council of India for further extension of approval six months in advance before expiry of the period of approval of affiliation granted by the Bar Council of India. i.e. on or before 31st December, 2018 and 31st December, 2019 respectively.

The above recommendations were considered by the Legal Education Committee of the Bar Council of India on 30th April, 2017 which approved the same. The same was further confirmed by General Council of the Bar Council of India on 5th May, 2017.

This is for your information and necessary action.
